MEMORANDA.

In the Table of Contents one column of numerals refers to the page in the body of the Catalogue, the other to the page in the Supplement, in which Works, under the particular head specified, will be found.

Titles in Roman type, refer to Works conceived to be of sufficient importance, to merit the particular attention of Collectors for Public Institutions; but, it is to be observed, that, owing to a mistake of the Press, two very valuable Works, numbers 2652 and 2653, are not so distinguished.

When the names of Authors are placed within parenthesis, they are added on good authority to Works published anonymously.

The following contractions occur: bds. boards, h. b. half bound, rl. royal, vel. vellum, mor. morocco.
